death a guarantee of peace.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

THE Bishop of Acathia, the right Rev. Father Raimondi, vicar apostolic of this diocese, arrived from San Francisco by the City of Tokio this morning.

We hear from Swatow that Captain Cocker arrived at that port at Christmas, and assumed the command of the revenue cruiser Ling Feng, vice Captain Farrow who has gone north.

CHUN CUM SING, an unemployed seaman, charged before Mr. Woodhouse this morning with attempting to steal three jackets, valued at $1.50, was relegated to the "jug" for three months' steady employment at the usual rate of remuneration paid by a liberal Government to those hard labor inmates.

CHOI ALANG, a carpenter, charged with stealing 12 lbs. of copper nails from the British barque Helen at Aberdeen on the 3rd instant, said he was not the man who did the deed. The evidence of Cornelius Daniels, a watchman at the Aberdeen docks, went to show that Choi was the boner of the nails, and Mr. Woodhouse consigned the carpenter to Hayward's reformat for a month's hard labour.

News from Korea, says the Japan Mail, is to the effect that the Minister for Foreign Affairs, a nominee of the Ta-o-Kun, has been condemned to exile by the Chinese Government, for having falsely announced the death of the Queen and invested a corpse with her garments on the occasion of the late rebellion, and also for having failed to show Her Majesty proper respect when she subsequently returned from hiding. The people are said to be satisfied with his punishment. Probably they would have been equally satisfied with his acquittal. What the public has seen of their conduct does not convey the impression that they are very single-hearted.
In Japan, they cannot sufficiently praise the Japanese and abuse the Chinese, but in China their sentiments are exactly reversed.

WE wonder on what grounds the accomplished "Banian," whose universal knowledge is really astounding, ventures to predict that the Choral Society will not be able to represent the "Ancient Mariner" this season! This aesthetic twaddler certainly pays the members of the Choral Society a very poor compliment in thus questioning their ability to represent a popular work which really presents few musical difficulties. It can hardly be agreeable to Mr. Piron, the very able and energetic conductor of the Society, to have his labors frustrated, and cold water thrown on his hopes, by an ignorant, noxious, who is evidently a disappointed member of the chorus. However, Mr. Piron need not alarm himself at this person's impertinence. "Banian" may know a vast deal about "Buckets" and "Dust-bins," and possibly may be the fascinating lady-killer and universal genius he claims to be; but it is positively certain that he knows nothing at all about music, and still less—what is possible—about the prospects or intentions of the Hongkong Choral Society.

WE would remind our readers that the entertainment organized for the relief of the great distress at present existing amongst the poorer classes in the Philippines will take place at the Theatre Royal, City Hall, this evening. It gives us great pleasure to announce that nearly the whole of the seats have been engaged, so that the financial success of this most praiseworthy undertaking is already assured. We hear that Messrs. Smith's comedietta, "Uncle's Will" has gone capitol in rehearsal—as it could scarcely fail to do with such an accomplished Florence Matigold—and is likely to prove a brilliant success. The musical portion of the programme, with such talent as the celebrated Sting Band of the Buifs and the German Liedertafel, should also materially aid in attracting a large audience.

LAU AFAT, a carpenter, charged with stealing a brass lock, informed Mr. Woodhouse this morning that he wished to purchase the lock found on his person, and that he had no intention of stealing the same. The hawk who is proprietor of the lock in question stated that prisoner came up to his stall yesterday and collared the "Brahmin" without as much as saying, by your leave, and attempted to make off with it. This did not suit the hawk's book, so he accordingly laid hands on the would-be lock lifter and received for so doing a left-hander on the os frontis which rather upset his eyesight. Prisoner ran off and fell foul of a constable who ran him up to the Central Station. As Mr. Woodhouse does not approve of this eccentric method of making purchases, he sent Lau Afat to four weeks' imprisonment with hard labor.

An inquiry into the cause which led to the death of the late Captain E. Lee of the steamship Yankee, was formally opened by the Coroner, Mr. H. E. Woodhouse, at the Magistrate's at 2 o'clock this afternoon. Messrs. W.
L. Scott, W. Schmidt, and V. Carvalho were sworn in as a jury, and the court was then adjourned, in order to allow the jury to visit the Happy Valley to view the body of the deceased, which had been exhumed for the purpose. The Coroner, jury and witnesses accordingly met at the Happy Valley at 3 o'clock, and after viewing the body an adjournment was made to the Magistrate's where the inquiry is now proceeding. Owing to our early hour of going to press we are unable to give the full report, and as the matter appears to be assuming a serious character, we reserve our comments until we publish a detailed account in our next issue.

SUPREME COURT.

ORIGINAL JURISDICTION.

The following judgment was delivered this morning by His Lordship, Chief Justice Sir George Phillipps, *in re—Sands and another v. W. H.
Forbes*.
This cause came on before me for hearing on further consideration on the Registrar's Certificate as to the present state of the suit.

It appears from the certificate that all the questions in the suit, as far as the defendant is concerned, are settled with the exception of the realization of certain property in Macao and which is in process of realization. When that matter is settled, and the accounts passed, Mr.
Forbes will, so far as this Court is concerned, have no further interest in the suit.

The question of costs, as far as Mr. Forbes is concerned, seems to have been already disposed of, and the only costs outstanding are the costs incurred by him since March last. There has been no reasonable allegation why Mr. Forbes should not be paid these costs out of the fund in Court.

By the Registrar's certificate there appears to be two Trust funds outstanding, of which the Testator in this suit was Trustee. The amount to which each of these Trust estates are entitled should be ascertained by the Registrar and paid into separate accounts to the credit of each separate Trust estate, and the interest arising therefrom be accumulated until a further order of the Court.

There also appears to be certain Shares in public companies of limited liability which have been deposited in Court. As these Shares are not such investments as the Court can sanction they should be sold by the Registrar as opportunity offers, especially as such sale would be in conformance with the Testator's will, and the proceeds must be placed to the credit of the suit and invested.

Mr. Francis, as counsel for the defendant, called my attention to the fact of furniture valued at $5,670 which was directed by the will of the Testator to be sold being still unsold and in the possession of Mrs. Sands. He also called my attention to the great desirability in the interests of those entitled in remainder to an account being taken as to what portion of the money should be paid to Mrs. Sands on her own account, and as to the amounts paid to Mrs. Sands from time to time as interest. He also desired an enquiry as to what amount (if any) of the costs incurred in this suit should be charged to income and what to capital.
In my opinion, however, although in the interests of all parties I think it highly desirable that these matters should be settled, I have not the necessary papers before me to direct a reference to the questions referred to. The suit was brought by Mrs. Sands on her own account, and as guardian and next friend of her daughter against Mr. Forbes her co-executor for winding up her late husband's estate. The questions referred to by Mr. Francis are matters in which Mr. Forbes has no interest, and are indeed questions between the testator's life and those in remainder. Mrs. Sands appearing in the suit as the guardian and next friend of her daughter who is present the party entitled in remainder.
Mr. Sands does not choose, as he might, to bring the matter forward before the Court for decision. Mrs. Sands is not yet of an age to give her consent to anything or to instruct any one in her own behalf, and no one has applied to me to protect the interest of Mrs. Sands by becoming her next friend in lieu of her mother in taking the account. The matter referred to by Mr. Francis must therefore stand over for the present. It might have stopped payment of all interest until the capital sum were ascertained, and probably would have done so, so that the fund in Court were small, but as the amount in Court is so large I do not think it necessary to resort to this step in order to compel Mrs. Sands to have the accounts taken against her will. The directions I shall give will be that the Registrar shall estimate the amount of all possible claims against the income and carry it to an account to be entitled Suspense Account, and accumulate the interest on such account until the accounts, as between Mrs. Sands and the estate, are taken on the death of the Court.

The amount in Court after payment of all claims must in the absence of any application on the part of the Testator for life for a more profitable investment and with the assent of counsel on her behalf, be placed on deposit by the Registrar at 5 per cent. in one of the Banks approved by the Court and the proceeds of all moneys invested, with the exception of the moneys hereby directed to be carried to Suspense Account, will be from time to time paid to Mrs. Sands.

The costs incurred by Mrs. Sands since March last will be paid by the Registrar out of any moneys in his hands in the same manner as her costs have hitherto been paid.

COURT OF VICE-ADMIRALTY.

THE "YORKSHIRE" SALVAGE CASE.

In re—Samuel Ashton v. steamer Yorkshire.
Francis Ashton v. steamer Yorkshire.
The following judgements in the above cases were delivered to-day by His Lordship, Chief Justice Sir George Phillipps:—

These cases were cases in which salvage was claimed by the steamers Douglas and Hallong for going to the assistance of the steamship Yorkshire in the 1st Tan Tin where she had grounded, and assisting her to get off.

The Douglas is a steamer of 272 tons, and is of the value of £40,000.

The Hallong is a steamer of 177 1/2 tons, and of the value of £12,000.

Both these steamers belong to a regular line of passenger and cargo steamers and to the same proprietors, and were on their regular trips respectively when they went to the assistance of the Yorkshire.

The cases were heard separately but by agreement of the parties given in the case of the Douglas v. the Yorkshire was admitted so far as applicable to the case of the Hallong v. the Yorkshire.

The Yorkshire is a steamer of 1,425 tons, and it is admitted that her value, together with the value of the cargo and freight which the Douglas assisted in salvaging, amounted to £75,937, and that her value together with the value of the cargo and freight which the Hallong assisted in salvaging amounted to £102,494. This amount of £102,494, includes the £75,937, which is admitted to be the value of the Yorkshire and her cargo.

It was not disputed that the assistance which was given by the Douglas and the Hallong entitled both vessels to salvage remuneration, and the only question that was in dispute was as to the nature of the services rendered and the amount to be awarded.

On the part of the Douglas and the Hallong it was contended that the services were highly meritorious and entitled the salvors to a high rate of remuneration.

On the part of the Yorkshire it was contended that the services rendered were ordinary services, and that a comparatively small sum would be a sufficient remuneration to the owners of the vessels for the use that was made of them by the Yorkshire, and for the exertions of the masters and crews.

On a reference to the Registrar and Merchants they have reported that the expenses incurred by the owners of the Douglas, together with the estimated amount of profits at 20 per cent. on her value, which she ought to have earned during the night days that they considered she was employed in the salvage operations amounted to $2718.81, and that the expenses incurred by the owners of the Hallong, together with the estimated amount of profits which she ought to have earned, at 20 per cent. on her value, during the five days that they considered she was employed amounted to $897.06, and this Report not having been objected to must now be taken as correct.

The owners of the Douglas and the Hallong are certainly entitled to be refunded the amounts, and the question for my decision is as to how much more ought to be awarded to each of these vessels for their exertions.

The Douglas was, as compared with the Hallong, a powerful steamer. She was interrupted on her voyage to Foochow, and remained for nine days assisting the Yorkshire.

Her Master took some responsibility on himself in so doing. He gave valuable advice and assistance to the Yorkshire and in so doing exposed his vessel, in my opinion, to risks that I do not think would have been incurred by any prudent man without some adequate object in view such as saving valuable property.

It is important to encourage assistance to vessels in distress such as the Yorkshire was in by steamers of the class of the Douglas, and I think, taking all the circumstances of the case into consideration, that the Douglas is entitled to liberal remuneration. At the same time, considering the risks to which all vessels at sea are exposed, it is to the interests of all shipowners, including the owners of the Douglas, that salvage remuneration should not be excessive in amount.

I have, therefore, fixed the amount in the case of the Douglas at £3,950, which I consider a fair and reasonable remuneration to all concerned.

The Hallong was exposed to no appreciable risk, but she certainly assisted the Yorkshire greatly by removing so large a portion of her cargo. She also assisted the Yorkshire in other ways besides removing her cargo. She was employed for five days during the service and I have fixed her remuneration at £1,200.

These amounts of £3,950, and £1,200, are to include all expenses and the salvors in each case will obtain their costs.

AMOI.

We learn that an armed force of sailors and marines of about 300 strong, from H. I. German frigates Stoich and Elisabeth, landed this morning (December 29th) at one of the Lekin stations in Amoy and seized the iron piers belonging to Messrs. C. Gerard & Co. detained by the Lekin authorities.

We are told that the iron foundry of Messrs.
C. Gerard & Co. is being guarded by an armed force of about 300 marines and an officer.

The bund at Amoy is thronged by great numbers of Chinese, which is rather an unusual occurrence.

HORRIBLE MURDER IN AMOY.

On the morning of the 27th December a Chinese sailor named Ah Lin was murdered by his wife in a most horrible manner.

It appears that the wife of the murdered man did not like her husband, and during his frequent absences at sea, she used to admit a number of lovers at various times. On the evening of the 26th the murdered man left his house to join his vessel. Suspecting the fidelity of his wife he returned home between the hours of 2 and 3 in the morning, and found his wife in bed with one of her lovers, who quickly made his escape.

The wife eventually appeared her husband's wrath, and supplying him with plenty of bamboo made him dance, when he lay down and with a sleeping knife she cut his throat, and poured a lot of oil and poured a lot over him, then set fire to the bed and made her escape. The man was rescued by his neighbours after having been horribly burnt; he rallied a little, but succumbed to his injuries yesterday forenoon. The murderess was caught yesterday and taken to the Hallang yamen, where she will be tried, and, if found guilty, probably the second act of the horrible tragedy will take place. According to Chinese law, a wife who murders her husband and is found alive, the punishment sometimes lasting two or three days, as the executioners are very careful not to touch a vital part.—Gazette.

FOOCHOW.

We understand that colder weather than that of Thursday last, has not been experienced for many years in Foochow. Fahrenheit's thermometer, hanging in an office in which there was a fire, registered as low as forty-five degrees.

The present splendid weather for the shobling season, and the plenteousness of game, having tempted a large portion of the community up-country, has rendered Foochow unusually dull this Christmas. We hope the sportsmen may return not only with good "bags," but fully invigorated for the commencement of the New Year, which we sincerely wish may prove happy and prosperous one to the whole community.

Recently there have been far fewer fires to report as occurring in Foochow than usual, which fact rather endorses the views of the Chinese authorities, and they consider illustrates the policy they adopted in restricting the sale of kerosene oil. On Saturday evening last, however, a most destructive fire broke out close to the quarter near the Governor's Yamen, about one hundred and twenty houses being razed to the ground. The damage occasioned is estimated at $15,000.

On Christmas morn the sad intelligence reached Foochow of a loss sustained by one whose name is a household word not only throughout China, but who by his valuable literary work, has gained world-wide celebrity. Upon the lamentable news of Mrs. Giles' death being circulated, the flags of the various Consulates, and at Messrs. Jardine, Matheson & Co.'s, were at once hoisted half-mast high; and a gloom seemed cast over the most joyous morn of the year.
The deceased, who was 37 years of age, leaves the large family of six children. The mortal remains of the deceased were interred, in the Cemetery at Pagoda Anchorage.—Harald.

NEWS BY THE AMERICAN MAIL.

The Pacific Mail Company's steamer City of Tokio, Captain Maury, with the American mails of the 5th ulto., arrived in harbour early this morning.—We take the subjoined telegraphic items from our San Francisco files:—

LONDON, November 27th.

In Parliament to-day Trevelyan said the conflict between the Dublin police and organized lawlessness seemed to have been inaugurated.
The Government are determined to use all the resources at their disposal to put down the latest developments of disorder.

A train on the North Scotland Railway coming from McDuff at 4 o'clock this afternoon fell through a bridge at Eyvie. Five persons were killed and many injured. The engine had passed in safety. All the carriages were wrecked.

Cleveland Hall, the residence of Sir Arthur Elton, near Bristol, has been destroyed by fire.
A portion of the library, considered to be one of the most valuable in England, was burned.

The steamer Camborne, belonging to Nantes, was sunk by a collision in the British channel to-day. Fourteen persons were drowned.

DUBLIN, November 27th.

Archbishop MacCabe, in speaking at Harold Cross yesterday, denounced the murder of Detective Fox in the strongest terms. He asked the people to use their influence to drive away secret societies. The wrongdoers of last night, he said, were abroad for deadlier and more fiendish work, but their intentions were frustrated by the vigilance of the police.

Dennis Field, a juror in the case of Hynes, recently hanged for the murder of a herder named Dorothy, was met in Frederick street on his way home to-day by a car containing two men, one of whom jumped off and stabbed Field in several places with a sword. Field's assailants drove off in the direction of Drumcondra. Field is still alive, but his condition is precarious. He says he was stabbed in the arms and chest with a sword-cane. He seized the weapon and broke it. The men then knocked him down and wounded him in the back, after which they jumped on the car and told the driver to "drive quick, for heaven's sake." Field complains that several people saw him as he lay on the ground, but did not offer to assist. He staggered to a house, kicked against the door, and on being admitted sank into a chair. He had washed away the blood from his wounds by the time the doctors arrived.

An additional military guard has been placed at Dublin Castle.

A mob to-night attacked Jervis-street Hospital, where Dolan, who shot and killed Detective Cox, lies, with the object, it is believed, of removing him. The mob shouted and yelled and tried to break open the doors. The inmates were in a great state of alarm. The police were telegraphed for and a large force arrived on the ground at 10 o'clock, armed with swords and batons, when the mob scattered, lurking, however, in the vicinity. The police are now patrolling the neighborhood and guarding the hospital.

Only two of the five additional persons arrested to-day in connection with the murder of Detective Cox were detained in custody. Woodward, one of the supposed accomplices, lived some time in the United States. Seven judges, who had been dining in Mount Joy square, passed the spot where the murders of Detective Cox had been loitering a few minutes after the affray happened. It is thought the murderers were lying in wait for them.

PARIS, November 27th.

Two thousand members of French trades unions assembled yesterday, and extended greeting to twelve delegates from the English unions, who came to Paris to represent the views of the latter bodies in favor of the completion of the Channel tunnel.

A bill has been distributed in the Deputies, containing among the signatures those of Gambetta and Paul Bert, giving all persons the right to leave testamentary instructions as to whether their bodies shall be buried or cremated.

Bonnet Desvignes, a well-known Radical Deputy from Lyons, is dead.

While handling a revolver to-day, Gambetta shot himself in the hand.

Julius Guesde, editor of the Egalite, has been arrested in connection with the socialist movement.

The Jewish synagogue here was robbed yesterday of articles valued at 10,000 francs.

COLOGNE, November 27th.

The Rhine is still rising and the rain continues.
Communication by railroad is becoming more and more difficult.

WIEN, November 27th.

The Neckar, Main and Moselle rivers are bringing down great bodies of water at Frankfurt, Mayence, Coblenz and Cologne. The cellars on the streets on the water fronts are submerged.
The boat bridge at Mayence and Cologne has been secured with double anchors. The Main valley forms a great lake.

VIENNA, November 27th.

The Elbe valley is flooded and two villages near Elms are submerged.

CONSTANTINOPLE, November 27th.

Asyraf Pasha has been appointed Minister of Foreign Affairs in the place of Said Pasha.

Turkey refuses to recognize the cession of Massowah or any territory on the Red Sea to any Power.

Dervish Pasha has been released.

VIENNA, November 27th.

Fuad Pasha and Kamal Pasha have been arrested at Constantinople. The former was lately intrusted with a special mission to Vienna.

MADRID, November 27th.

Twenty-five hundred persons assembled at the Alhambra Theatre to-day to inaugurate an agitation throughout the country in favour of free trade.

ST. PETERSBURG, November 27th.

Of the students engaged in the recent demonstrations 180 have been arrested. Troops fired into a crowd of Kasan University students, killing three.

BERLIN, November 27th.

Bismarck has rejected the preliminary draft prepared by the Minister of Finance of a bill abolishing the four lowest grades of class taxes, and has instructed the Minister to recast the preamble and introduction. The bill will consequently be delayed. It is believed, however, that the bill has no chance of final adoption.
The National party has declined, on principle, the proposal to coalesce with the left wing of the Conservatives, and purpose forming a middle party in the Diet.

MONACO, November 27th.

A dynamite cartridge, which had been placed at the entrance of the Monte Carlo gambling saloon, exploded last evening, causing a great panic and wounding officials. An Italian was arrested in connection with the affair.

LONDON, November 28th.

Gladstone stated that the cost of the war in Egypt until October 1st was £3,500,000, including the expenses of the Indian contingent and the transportation of troops. Since the 1st October the change will be borne wholly or in part by Egypt.

Trevelyan stated that two additional Pay Commissioners will be attached to each Land Court in Ireland, in order to relieve the block of business.

Gladstone maintained that the charges against sub-commissioners had miserably broken down.
He defended the charges in the organization of the Land Commission.

Lord Randolph Churchill charged that it was the renewal of outrages in Ireland which had produced the change announced by Trevelyan. He concluded by asking who was morally the greater criminal, the man who, to avenge the conviction of a murderer, stabbed a jurymen in the street, or he who, by favoring political agitation, corrupted and poisoned the source of justice, and assassinated justice itself.
[Cries of Oh Oh!]

Gladstone refused the appointment of a Commission to inquire into the condition of the Sky crofters.

DUBLIN, November 28th.

The American ship Great Admiral, which has arrived at Dublin from San Francisco, has been in collision with the American ship Annie H. Smith, which has also arrived at Dublin from San Francisco. The hulls of both vessels were damaged.

The meeting of the Privy Council to-day was the most protracted one ever held by that body since the Fenian scare in 1867. The Lord Lieutenant presided. It was resolved to proclaim the city under the operation of the Curfew Section of the Repression Act, which authorizes the police to arrest all suspicious persons found on the streets between an hour after sunset and an hour before sunrise. A proclamation was also agreed to, offering a reward of $5,000 for information leading to the apprehension and conviction of Field's assailants, with the usual provisions of pardon and protection to informers.

In consequence of the assault upon juror Field, several jurors requested the Government to try political prisoners without juries.

Dennis Field, who was stabbed in Frederick street yesterday, when were Germans, and another 8 per cent. speak both languages. The political tendency of the motion was made apparent by the satisfaction with which the French press greeted its introduction. It was also apparent that the motion, and added there would be, in any case, another struggle for the possession of Alsace-Lorraine whenever the increasing ferment in France came to a head.

ROME, November 30th. There was considerable excitement in the Chamber of Deputies to-day, caused by the refusal of the Radical Left to take the oath of allegiance. Having twice refused to comply, the President ordered him to withdraw. Fallorini replied: "I have been sent here by the people, and I shall only leave under compulsion." Thereupon two officers removed him.

BERLIN, November 30th. The worst of the floods is over. The Rhine has fallen a foot and a half in the last twenty-four hours. There are still feet of water in the streets of Cologne, Coblenz and Bonn. At the last named place 160 houses are submerged, and nearly all provisions of food have been destroyed. There is much sickness in the flooded districts, especially among children and the poor.

PARIS, November 30th. The Seine continues to rise. The cellars of the Justice Hall and the Tribunal of Commerce are flooded.

THE HAGUE, November 30th. Large tracts of Holland are submerged. The river is still rising.

LONDON, December 1st. The News says it is believed France is preparing a specific demand on England for compensation for the lapse of the control in Egypt. In parliament to-day the Under Secretary of the Colonial Department read a telegram stating that the Cubans, Maceo's wife and sister, begged to be allowed to remain in Gibraltar, but permission had been refused.

The Commander and Navigator of the British man-of-war Phaon, wrecked on Prince Edward Island, have been dismissed from the service. The vessel was lost through negligent navigation. The Egyptian Government has applied to England for officers for the Egyptian army and negotiations are proceeding. Mudar Pasha, who has arrived at Cairo, has been informed that England declines to recognize or sanction his appointment as Commander-in-Chief of the Egyptian army. It is believed that a British General will be sent to Egypt to take command of the force levied by Baker Pasha, who, not holding a commission in the British army, is not competent to assume command over British officers.

DUBLIN, December 1st. Davitt says, that not being morally conscious of having broken a law, or leading others to break a law, he should remain in Ireland until Monday, when, if not arrested, he intended to proceed to the north of England to give a series of lectures. If arrested, because of his speech at Navan on the 25th ult., in which he eulogized the action of the Irish Parliamentary party, Davitt said he had already determined not to enter recognition for good behavior, but would compel the Government to prove his guilt in a court of law and take the consequences. Davitt added that he would not lecture on Sunday, as he had promised, as he was suffering from a severe cold.

VIENNA, December 1st. The river Theiss and its affluents have overflowed their banks. The Marmaros district is inundated. Several bridges have been damaged and the railway embankments broken down. The deaths on the Theiss are in great danger.

PARIS, December 1st. The Seine has risen 6.40 metres above its normal level. Houses at Nogent, Joinville, St. Maurice, Asnières and Courbevoie are being deserted through fear. Disasters from the flood in the valleys of the Rhine and Garonne are especially severe. The country between Chalons-sur-Marne and Epervan is inundated.

BERLIN, December 1st. In the Diet to-day on Püttkammer stated that the damage by the overflow of the Rhine could not be repaired without drawing on the resources of the State. He had requested the Emperor to sanction a grant of 500,000 marks to relieve the distress in the flooded districts. The Diet will be asked for the funds as soon as the amount required has been ascertained.

ST. PETERSBURG, December 1st. It is reported that the policeman who arrested Sophie Picoffsky in 1881 has been assassinated by nihilists.

VIENNA, December 1st. A woman named Kathie, one of the twenty-six women arrested several months ago for poisoning their husbands, was hanged to-day. She confessed to murdering two husbands. Four other women have been convicted.

PARIS, December 1st. A duel with swords was fought this morning by Andreux, late Ambassador to Spain, and Laurence, editor of the newspaper Paris. The latter was slightly wounded. The Paris had accused Andreux of wearing the decoration of the Legion of Honor when in Spain, although he had never received that order, and of subsequently, when his conduct had attracted attention, begging Grevy to confer it on him.

The report of Robot, Reporter of the Budget Committee, has been distributed in the Chamber. It predicts a deficit of 78,000,000 francs for the current year.

Several churches in the Department of Maine-et-Loire have been robbed. Several valuable paintings were stolen from the Church of St. Herault.

The French squadron at Madagascar will be reinforced. M. Vernet Duclere, chief of the Cabinet, died suddenly to-day.

A party of Englishmen, members of the Trade Union, visited Leon Say and De Freycinet to-day. The latter acquainted the callers with his views on the scheme for tunneling the English Channel. De Freycinet said the idea of a French invasion in the event of the channel scheme being carried out was inadmissible as the English would rise as one man and repel the invasion. Moreover, what hostile army would risk an engagement in a narrow tube forty kilometers long.

ST. PETERSBURG, December 1st. The municipal bank of Skopin, in the province of Riazan, has failed for over £2,000,000, ruining the whole town, as well as hundreds of families elsewhere. Skopin is fifty-two miles south of Riazan, on the Werda river, and has a population of 6000. Its chief industry is the manufacture of Russia leather.

LONDON, December 3rd. The Archbishop of Canterbury died this morning. The Archbishop passed away quietly and apparently without suffering in the presence of his three daughters, Davidson, his son-in-law, Canon Knowles and Dr. Canterbury. Saturday he remained in a semi-unconscious state, occasionally asking for water. About eleven at night he spoke his last words: "It is coming! It is coming!" He was then seized with a sharp spasm and his voice was not heard again; although it is believed he was partly conscious to the end. At seven in the morning he exhibited signs of dissolution. It is understood that the Dean of Westminster, on behalf of the Queen, had offered burial for the Archbishop in Westminster Abbey. The decision rests with the deceased's daughters. Muffled peals were rung in the adjacent town of Croydon and the Archbishop's death was touchingly alluded to at the morning services.

MADRID, December 3rd. A meeting of a majority of the Chamber of Deputies was held to-day. Sagasta, President of the Council of Ministers, declared that the views and intentions of the Government remained unchanged. Reforms would be introduced which would include religious liberty, freedom of the press, trial by jury and civil marriage.

LONDON, December 4th. The Daily Telegraph says President Arthur's message to Congress will not rank with the great efforts made on similar occasions by many of his predecessors. If ever a state paper presaged the waning influence and coming downfall of a political party, it is the message delivered yesterday by a man so blind to the true interest lying ahead of him, and so infirm of purpose as President Arthur.

The Daily News says: It seems that President Arthur has taken to heart the lesson of the late election. A passage in his message pronouncing in favor of civil service reform must be intended as an offer of reconciliation to disaffected Republicans. Referring to the financial part of the message, the News says: If the reduction of the national debt proceeds at last year's rate the protective tariff must fall to the ground, because there will be no means of expending the enormous surplus when the debt is effected.

The Times says: There is now no doubt that President Arthur, after a series of cautious tactical movements, has placed himself at the head of the stalwart party and succeeded in detaching from their Republican connection the reformers and independents who, if few in number, are among the most eminent for capacity and character.

LONDON, December 4th. The Queen opened the new Courts of Justice in London to-day, with imposing ceremonies. In passing the American Exchange to open the Courts, the Queen was saluted by four hundred Americans. Her Majesty was evidently gratified by the enthusiastic reception, and bowed her acknowledgments. The streets through which the procession moved were crowded with enthusiastic people. All the dignitaries of the realm in London were present. At the ceremonies Lord Selborne, Lord High Chancellor, was created an Earl in honor of the event. Just before handing the building over to the legal authorities there was a two-hours' search similar to that always indulged in since the Gunpowder Plot before the opening of Parliament. The Court party were in mourning in consequence of the death of the Archbishop of Canterbury.

DUBLIN, December 4th. Justice O'Brien said to-day that owing to the increase in the number of undetected offenders, justice in Dublin was gradually decaying. Those able to do so were giving up business and fleeing the city, as if it were infected with plague. The Freeman's Journal urges Healy and Davitt to give bail, as the imprisonment of the two in whom Ireland places the most confidence would cause great mischief.

Ten of the eighteen prisoners arrested on suspicion of firing at an agent and two policemen on Castle Island have been released. A banquet proposed to be given to Patrick Egan has been postponed in consequence of the Government's proceedings against Davitt and other members of the Irish party.

ALEXANDRIA, December 4th. A native demonstration, in honor of Arabi Pasha, took place to-day in the street where the massacre of June 11th began.

CONSTANTINOPLE, December 4th. Dervish Pasha is to be executed. St. PETERSBURG, December 4th. It is calculated that the embezzlements and robberies, private and official, in Russia during the year amount to 26,000,000 rubles.

LONDON, December 4th. A correspondent at Constantinople says:—The Sultan did not attend the mosque on Friday, and it has since transpired that an attempt to assassinate him was contemplated. The Sultan is completely terror-stricken and hardly dares to show himself outside of the harem.

PARIS, December 4th. A semi-official statement is published that France has resolved to uphold her treaty of 1868 with Madagascar in its entirety. England, it is said, is not protesting against the claims of France. She has only manifested a desire for information in regard to the intentions of the French Government with respect to Madagascar.

ROME, December 4th. In accordance with an opinion of the Venetian Tribunal and Council of State, the Government will refuse to surrender to Austria the two natives of Trieste arrested on a charge of being connected with the manufacture of bombs to be used for treasonable purposes.

"THAMES-STREET INDUSTRIES," by Percy Russell. This Illustrated Pamphlet on Perfumery, &c., published at 6d., may be had gratis from any Chemist or dealer in perfumery in the World, or JOHN GOSNELL & Co., London.—[ADVT.]

The Daily News says: It seems that President Arthur has taken to heart the lesson of the late election. A passage in his message pronouncing in favor of civil service reform must be intended as an offer of reconciliation to disaffected Republicans. Referring to the financial part of the message, the News says: If the reduction of the national debt proceeds at last year's rate the protective tariff must fall to the ground, because there will be no means of expending the enormous surplus when the debt is effected.

The Times says: There is now no doubt that President Arthur, after a series of cautious tactical movements, has placed himself at the head of the stalwart party and succeeded in detaching from their Republican connection the reformers and independents who, if few in number, are among the most eminent for capacity and character.

HAIR DRESSING SALOON
HONGKONG HOTEL.
W. P. MOORE begs to inform the Gentlemen of Hongkong and Visitors that he has reduced the price of Hair-Cutting to 50 cents. Having now in his employ three competent Assistants who are always in attendance, he guarantees to execute this class of work, in all its branches, with a perfection which cannot be excelled in any part of the World.

Hair-Cutting.....50 Cents.
Shampooing.....25 Cents.
Shaving.....25 Cents.
Trimming Beards.....25 Cents.

MONTHLY CUSTOMERS TAKEN AT REDUCED RATES.
RAZORS MOST CAREFULLY RE-SET.
Mr. MOORE begs to recommend his GOGO SHAMPOO WASH to the public as unrivalled by any preparation ever produced for promoting the growth of the hair. The basis of this compound is made of soap root; the natives of the Philippine Islands never use anything else for washing their hair; they are never found bald, and it is quite common to see the females with hair from 5 to 6 feet long. By constantly using this Shampoo Wash as directed, you will NEVER BE BALD.

The proprietor offers the Wash to the public entirely confident that, by its restorative properties it will, without fail, arrest decaying hair. It completely eradicates scurf, dandruff, and cures all diseases of the scalp. It does not contain any poisonous drugs. By its cooling properties it allays the itching, and fever of the scalp, which is the great cause of people losing their hair.

Mr. MOORE has succeeded in being able to put this wash up in bottles without allowing it to ferment, and he will guarantee it to keep any length of time in any climate. [711]

Commercial.

THIS DAY.

Noon.
This morning's share transactions possess few features of special interest. Banks continue in good demand, and a fair amount of cash business has been put through in the old stock at 77 per cent. premium, and at this rate there are still inquiries. The scrip of the New Issue is not in great request at present. Docks remain in good order, with buyers at 53 per cent. premium. We hear of sales in Steamboats at 32 per share premium; and at this quotation further shares might be placed without difficulty. Hotels have changed hands at the increased rate of 125. China Sugar stock has also taken another spurt, and after a fair amount of business the shares remain in demand at 195. Cash transfers of Luons at 113 and 114 have to be noted, the stock closing very firm at the latter rate. For the end of February some time bargains have been negotiated at 116.

4 o'clock p.m.
We have no further transactions to chronicle from the Share Market since last writing. Luons still have an upward tendency, and are now wanted at 115 for cash. Other stocks remain as per annexed list.
